COLLEGE OF FINE ARTS SCHOLARSHIPS
School of Music
Undergraduate Students, 2015-16

Qualifications and Guidelines:

- School of Music full-time major or declared minor during the semester in which the scholarship is awarded and making satisfactory progress in major applied study
- Cumulative GPA of 2.75
  *Students receiving CFA/Music Scholarships are granted one semester of scholarship probation. Scholarship funds will not be provided during the probationary semester. A scholarship recipient whose cumulative grade point average falls below 2.75 at the May grade review will be placed on scholarship probation for the following term. A scholarship will be reinstated for a student on probation only if the student completes twelve (12) credit hours and earns a cumulative grade point average of 2.75 or higher by the end of the probationary semester. There is no probationary semester for students who drop below full-time status.
- Cumulative minimum of twenty-four (24) credit hours over the academic year and be in compliance with all School/CFA/University policies of conduct, including those found in the “Student Rights and Responsibilities” (http://www.uky.edu/Deanofstudents/student-rights-and-responsibilities)
- Participate in all unit activities as assigned
- Awards are renewable for up to eight (8) semesters for all undergraduate degree programs, except for the B.M.M.E. degree, which is renewable up to ten (10) semesters
- Summer school enrollment and awards do not count against these eight (8) semester or ten (10) semester limits
- Transfer students or currently enrolled UK students are eligible through the equivalent of their eighth or tenth semester of undergraduate study as defined above; semesters of prior college enrollment at UK and other institutions are considered in the total eight (8) and/ or ten (10) semesters as defined above
- Summer term awards for majors and/or minors participating in on-campus College-related activities (e.g., Grand Night for Singing, Summer Band Camp, Theatre/Dance Intensive) will be capped at the cost of one 3-credit course based on residency status; coursework must support the requirements for the degree
- Scholarship awards will not exceed the cost of tuition and fees, and the total amount of scholarship from all UK sources cannot exceed the cost of attendance, as defined on the “Tuition and Fees” page of the Student Financial Aid website: http://www.uky.edu/financialaid/
- If the total monetary value of UK scholarships and any federal, state, or private need-based or non need-based awards for any student exceeds the cost of attendance, the Student Financial Aid Office will adjust the monetary value of the awards accordingly each year
- Students who drop a course may be liable for the expenses incurred. Scholarship money credited to the payment of dropped courses may be removed and the student may be billed for any costs incurred. Students who fail to complete and pass twenty-four (24) credit hours between the fall and spring semesters will lose the remainder of their scholarship
- Scholarship awards will be limited to lump sums payable in the fall and spring only.
- By accepting this scholarship, students authorize the College of Fine Arts to release their name and scholarship award in publicity and marketing collateral

Administrative Guidelines:

- All award offers and ensuing correspondence will come from the Director of the School of Music; after letters of offer are sent to students by May 1st, the Director must submit a spreadsheet to CFA’s CFO/Assistant Dean outlining award details; upon receipt of student acceptance letter (May 15th deadline) SAG Forms must be processed in the unit within ten (10) business days and submitted for approval to CFA’s CFO/Assistant Dean for signature, and then forwarded by the unit Director to the Office of Student Financial Aid to ensure a complete student aid award package

March 9, 2015
• Awards for students who transfer or are admitted after May 1st must be approved by the Dean
• Family members of CFA faculty/staff are eligible for scholarships, but in support of Governing Regulation, Part XIV (e.g., nepotism and conflict of interest), the Dean of the College of Fine Arts must approve these scholarship offers
• Final awards may not exceed budget authority available
• Levels of award are based on the strength of each candidate’s application (determined through performance audition and credentials review) in conjunction with instrumentation/program area needs of the SoM
• The Director is responsible for the financial oversight of these awards; at the end of the fall and spring semesters, they must submit to the CFO/Assistant Dean a brief report verifying student compliance
Qualifications and Guidelines:

- School of Music full-time major during the semester in which the scholarship is awarded and making satisfactory progress in major applied study
- Cumulative GPA of 3.0*
  *Students receiving CFA Music Scholarships are granted one semester of scholarship probation. Scholarship funds will not be provided during the probationary semester. A scholarship recipient whose cumulative grade point average falls below 3.0 will be placed on scholarship probation for the following term. A scholarship will be reinstated for a student on probation only if the student completes nine (9) credit hours and earns a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher by the end of the probationary semester. There is no probationary semester for students who drop below full-time status.
- Cumulative minimum of eighteen (18) credit hours over the academic year and be in compliance with all School/CFA/University policies of conduct, including those found in the “Student Rights and Responsibilities” (http://www.uky.edu/deanofstudents/student-rights-and-responsibilities)
- Awards are renewable for up to four (4) semesters for Master’s level degree programs and up to six (6) semesters for all D.M.A. and Ph.D. degree programs
- Summer term awards for students enrolled and degree seeking in the School of Music who participate in an on-campus College-related activity (e.g. Summer Band Camp, Theatre/Dance Intensive, etc.) will be capped at the cost of one 3-credit course based on residency status; coursework must support the requirements for the degree
- Scholarship awards will not exceed the cost of tuition and fees, and the total amount of scholarship from all UK sources cannot exceed the cost of attendance, as defined on the “Tuition and Fees” page of the Student Financial Aid website: http://www.uky.edu/financialaid/
- If the total monetary value of UK scholarships and any federal, state, or private need-based or non need-based awards for any student exceeds the cost of attendance, the Student Financial Aid Office will adjust the monetary value of the awards accordingly each year
- Students who drop a course may be liable for the expenses incurred. Scholarship money credited to the payment of dropped courses may be removed and the student may be billed for any costs incurred. Students who fail to complete and pass twenty-four (24) credit hours between the fall and spring semesters will lose the remainder of their scholarship
- Scholarship awards will be limited to lump sums payable in the fall and spring only.
- By accepting this scholarship, students authorize the College of Fine Arts to release their name and scholarship award in publicity and marketing collateral

Administrative Guidelines:

- All award offers and ensuing correspondence will come from the Director of the School of Music; after letters of offer are sent to students by April 15th – the national deadline for the Council for Graduate Schools (CGS), the Director must submit a spreadsheet to CFA’s CFO/Assistant Dean outlining award details; upon receipt of student acceptance letter (May 1st deadline) SAG Forms must be processed in the unit within ten business days and submitted to CFA’s CFO/Assistant Dean for signature, and then forwarded by the Director to the Office of Student Financial Aid and the Graduate School to ensure a complete student aid award package
- Awards for students who transfer or are admitted after April 15th must be approved by the Dean
- Scholarship awards will be limited to lump sums payable in the fall and spring only
- Family members of CFA faculty/staff are eligible for scholarships, but in support of Governing Regulation, Part XIV (e.g. nepotism and conflict of interest), the Dean of the College of Fine Arts must approve all scholarship offers
Awards may not exceed budget authority available; for graduate students awards cannot exceed 20% of total CFA Scholarship allocation

Level of awards must adhere to the Guidelines for Reasonable Standards of Compensation as outlined by the Graduate School: http://www.research.uky.edu/gs/StudentFunding/ReasonableCompGuide.html

Levels of award are based on the strength of each candidate’s application (determined through performance audition and credentials review) in conjunction with instrumentation/program area needs of the SoM

The Director is responsible for the financial oversight of these awards; at the end of the fall and spring semesters, they must submit to the CFO/Assistant Dean a brief report verifying student compliance